SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 2, 1862

Oregon State Fair,

Cattle are very properly placed at the head of the list of useful animals but horses can not be dispensed with. The premiums offered for horses by the State Agricultural Society in their premium list, ought to bring out all the best horses of the State. We read much that is printed in regard to the value of horses in Oregon. We would like to see them with our own eyes; and we want all the farmers who attend the Fair, to see them. Let them examine their points, and then refer to their pedigrees.

Class II.—Horses.

No. 10—Horses of all Work —Best stallion 4 yrs old and upward, $20, 2d best, $10, [illegible] yrs old $1[illegible] 2d best $[illegible] 2 yrs old, $10, 2d best $8. Best brood mare (and colt) 4 yrs old and upward $15 2d best $10 3 yrs old [illegible] 2d best, $[illegible]; sucking colt $3, 2d best, $2.

"Horses for all work" are understood to be horses for all farm purposes—a valuable and necessary class of horses.

No. 11—Draft Horses.—Best stallion 4 yrs old and upward, $15, 2d best $10, 3 yrs old $10, 2d best, $5. Best mare 4 years old and upward $10 2d best, $[illegible] 3 yrs old $[illegible], 2d best, $4. Best sucking colt, $[illegible] 2d best $2.

Draft horses are of service in cities as dray animals—and for moving heavy bodies short distances.

No. 12—Thoroughbred —Best stallion 4 yrs old and upward, $20, 2d best, $10; 3 yrs old, $15 2d best $10 [illegible] yrs old, $10, 2d best, $8, 1 yr old $[illegible] 2d best $[illegible]. Best mare 4 yrs old and upward $1[illegible], 2d best $10 3 yrs old $10 2d best, $5, 2 yrs old, $8 2d best $4. Best 1 yr old $[illegible], 2d best, $3. Best sucking colt, $3, 2d best $2.

Through bred animals are of great value in improving the horses. A cross on a good American mare brings a valuable animal for the road or for all work. In the Eastern States, the thorough bred horse is much in use for this purpose.

No. 13—Roadsters —Best stallion, 4 yrs old and upward $20, 2d best, $15; 3 yrs old, $15, 2d best, $10. Best mare 4 yrs old and upward, $15, 2d best, $10, 3 yrs old $10, 2d best, $5. Best colt, $3, 2d best, $2.

The following is a sweepstake for colts—of all breeds:

No. 14—Colts (without reference to blood) —Best stallion 2 yrs old, $8, 2d best, $4, 1 yr old, $5 2d best $3. Best mare, 2 yrs old, $8, 2d best, $4, 1 yr old $5 2d best, $3.

TROTTING, PACING AND RUNNING HORSES

We place these together, with the single remark that the running, trotting and pacing, is to be in all cases, AGAINST TIME, and from the number of animals in this State belonging to these classes, it may be anticipated that this part of the exhibition will be most interesting.

No. 15—Matched Carriage Horses —Best span trotters, $15, 2d best, $10, pacers $10 2d best $[illegible]

No. 16 Match of Roadsters with rider [illegible] Speed — Best span trotters $15, 2d best $10; pacers $10 2d best $5

No. 17—(Speed) —Best pacing horse mare or gelding, $10, 2d best, $5, best trotting $10, 2d best $[illegible]

No. 18—(Speed and Bottom) —Best running horse mare or gelding, 4 miles, $50 best running, 1 mile $[illegible]

Trotting Purse —Best trotting stallion [illegible] trials 1 mile $50. Entrance fee, $10

SWEEPSTAKES FOR HORSES MARES AND COLTS

No. 19—Mares and Colts —Best lot of mares and colts owned by one man on one place exhibited at Fair not less than 5, $15 2d best, $10

SWEEPSTAKES FOR HORSES, MARES AND COLTS, WITHOUT REGARD TO BLOOD

Best stallion, $10, 2d best $5. Best mare $10 2d best $5. Best lot of colts from one county, $1[illegible] 2d best $[illegible]

JACKS, JENNETTS AND MULES

No. 20—Jacks, Jennetts and mules —Best imported Jack $12, 2d best $9. Best Oregon bred Jack $1[illegible] 2d best $[illegible]. Best imported jennett, $10, 2d best, $5. Best Oregon bred jennett, $10, 2d best, $5. Best pair Oregon bred mules $12, 2d best, $6. Best single Oregon bred mule $[illegible] 2d best, $3

Mules bring high prices in Oregon, and the raising of them would be a profitable branch of farming.

It ought ever to be borne in mind that premiums should be given, not because there is no better animal on exhibition, but because the animal receiving it is of approved excellence—a proper animal to improve the stock of the country.

THEATRE —The Willamette Theatre will be open again to-night, and the great operatic burlesque tragedy of "Shylock" will be repeated by the special request of numerous citizens who have not enjoyed the amusing scene. Mr. John Wood will appear in his great and most favorite character of "Old Shylock," and we hesitate not in saying that this play is the best ever presented in the city. A new and beautiful farce will conclude the evening's entertainment. Miss Virginia Lawrence and Miss Belle Divine will sing several fine songs.

UNION COURSE —There will be a match race over this course to-day at [illegible] o'clock P M for $[illegible], between J. [illegible] Austin's [illegible] "Lumber Jim" and J. P. Dennison's [illegible] "Not the good-for-nothing." The omnibus will be ready to go at 2 o'clock.

MILITARY —Col. Steinberger left Vancouver on the steamer Julia yesterday morning, with two companies of Washington Territory Volunteers, for Walla Walla, to which post he goes to take command, relieving the California troops who are ordered below.

Rev. T. Starr King will preach in the Methodist Church to-morrow at 7½ o'clock P. M.

By Overland Telegraph.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to July 28th.

YREKA, July 28th—4 P. M.

No important events have occurred. The people of Culpepper, Orange and Madison counties, Virginia, are represented as heartily sick of the War—stripped of their stock by the rebels, their crops failed, and starvation stares them in the face.

The fee for recruits to fill up old regiments is to be double that of new, in order to fill up immediately. It is ordered that they shall be armed, equipped and placed in camps of instruction at once.

The President officially announces the death of ex-President Van Buren. The Executive mansion and the several Departments were draped in black.

A rebel raid in Tennessee is reported to have destroyed a large amount of commissary and quartermaster's stores. A band of forty rebels captured 60 wagons containing commissary and quartermaster's stores near Pittsburg Landing.

Advices from Tuscumbia state that 1,000 bales of cotton have been destroyed in that vicinity within the last 10 days, by guerrillas. They discriminate between Union men and rebels, allowing rebels to sell to Union men and then destroying it.

The steamer Wilson which arrived at Cairo on 2[illegible]th was fired into from the Mississippi side by 6 pounders and musketry.

News from Vicksburg is unimportant.

Bombardment is renewed from the upper fleet, which is occasionally replied to by the rebels.

The Confederate gunboat Arkansas is under the protection of the rebel batteries undergoing repairs.

There are several cases of yellow fever at Norfolk.

Official report of loss in late battles is stated approximating to 16,000.

There is much excitement in Louisville, caused by a large number of persons claiming protection of the British flag as exempt from enrollment to serve under Schofield. The disturbance was quelled by the Provost Marshal.

The Secession members of the second branch of the Common Council in compliance with an intimation from Gen'l Wool that their resignation would tend to the preservation of peace, special attention will be given to filling vacancies with loyal men.

Reports from Rappahannock confirm the rumor that Jackson was at Louisa Court house in the vicinity of Gordonsville with 24,000 men. It is believed he will make an attempt to invade Maryland.

Gen Johnson's official report of the battle of Fair Oaks, claims to have taken 10 pieces of artillery, and 6000 muskets. The entire rebel loss is stated at 10,000.

The State of Texas has summoned every man from 15 to 45 years of age. Whole families are to be hung in case that city [Galveston] is taken by Federals.

Further Details.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., July 23 — Pursuant to the orders of Gen. Pope, influential citizens of Fredericksburg were arrested last night, to be held as hostages for the release of certain Union men who were carried off by the rebels last Spring.

A detachment of Indiana Cavalry had a skirmish on Monday with a body of rebels, several miles from here on the Richmond road. Six rebels were captured and one killed.

CAIRO, July 24th —Officers of the dispatch boat from Vicksburg say it was reported at Memphis from rebel sources, that the gunboat Arkansas had been captured. The officers are inclined to believe the report, as an expedition was planned before they left to cut her out and capture her.

Advices from Vicksburg say: "Farragut's fleet received no damage in passing the batteries on the night of the Arkansas exploit, and succeeded in silencing every rebel battery as they passed. The mortars were still shelling the batteries when the informant left.—No response was made. The canal is now finished, but the engineer has delayed letting on the water until there is another rise in the river. No doubt is entertained of its success."

WASHINGTON, July 25 —The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has received cheering advices from the Indian Territory. Large numbers of Indians have asked to be furnished with arms to operate against Secessionists. It has been ascertained that the rebel Government professes to have made treaties with the Choctaws, Shawnees, Senecas, and other tribes, and appropriated money to carry the treaties into effect. As the Senecas and Shawnees are known to be loyal to the United States it is supposed that the treaty has been made by a few only of their Chiefs with the rebels.

Specials to the New York papers say that Senator Lane, of Kansas, yesterday received authority from the President and Secretary of War to recruit troops under the late laws. With this authority he will leave for the West to-morrow, where he will issue an order calling for loyal men irrespective of color. He expects to have one white and two black regiments in the field within three weeks from the time he reaches his destination.

A telegram from a member of McClellan's staff says: "All civilians, including correspondents, are now excluded from the lines of that army."

The first of September has been determined upon as the day on which the Internal Tax Bill goes into practical operation. Collectors and Assessors will be appointed and whatever other work is necessary will be done before the date fixed by this notice.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 23d has been received. The leading editorial is upon the pending exchange of prisoners. It says the basis of exchange has been conceded, and adds: "This cartel marks an important era in this war. It is an acknowledgment of our quasi nationality. We are by it made belligerents, and the Government of the United States treats with the Government of the Confederate States through Commissioners."

Gen. Halleck and staff, accompanied by Gen. Burnside, left last evening for Fortress Monroe.

The list of rebel losses in the late battles is contained in the Enquirer. The same paper has another growl at prices for marketing in Richmond, and says high prices are still raging and hucksters are making a mint of shinplasters. It claims that one more Confederate victory will end the war. Rowdyism and murder appear to have the upper hand in Richmond and the Enquirer complains of a bogus military guard who shoot down men wantonly, and also do the Government a great deal of mischief in the way of robbing and bruising. It also complains of straggling bands of desperadoes, who run away from the camps and whose fixed occupation is attacking, stabbing, bruising and rowdyism.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2[illegible] —The City Council yesterday appropriated half a million of dollars for the payment of forty and fifty dollars bounty to each volunteer from this city.

Col Scott, who has just returned from New Orleans, says that but for the stringent measures adopted Gen. Butler New Orleans could not be held.

On Inquiry there is authority for saying that all rumors or statements about a division in the Cabinet and the retirement of Seward are entirely without foundation.

The War Department learns through Gen. Dix that the rebel authorities order the unconditional discharge of all Federal Surgeons and all Army Chaplains taken prisoners while in discharge of their legitimate duties. This is in accordance with the example set them by the Government.

It has been arranged that the Postmaster General shall issue stamps on and after the 1st of August, to be used as currency until the Secretary of the Treasury can perfect arrangements which will buy them from the Postoffice Department, and will redeem them as provided by law. The stamps issued by the Postmaster General differ in no wise from those received for postage, except that they will be without gluten.

CAPE RACE, July 2[illegible] —The details of the fight before Richmond were received and read with great interest, and eagerly canvassed. Some journals regard it as a great reverse to the Federal army, and reproach the American Government for treating it in any other light. Others contend that McClellan sustained no serious disaster, and is practically master [illegible] Richmond, and may congratulate himself on the greatest and most successful operation of the war.

From our Salmon River Correspondent

Letter No. XI.

LAPWAI, W. T., July 22, 1862

We left Florence on the 19th. New diggings had been struck in places on the Clearwater, on the bars of Salmon river, on White Lead creek, and about 70 miles from Florence on the South side of Salmon river, and at a few other localities at some of which miners were making from $4 to $10 per day, but the claims were limited, and at none of these points was anything found that could be considered rich or extensive. The most favorable report I saw or heard was contained in a letter written from John Day's river by Mr Blodset to his son in Florence, who is a merchant there. The writer says there were then about one thousand persons there, and that "there is a considerable extent of country now being prospected and in all directions rich diggings are found. A great many come in every day. I know there are a great many claims that are very rich—one right opposite my tent that yield from $10 to $50 per day to a single rocker. The creek is very rich, and large coarse gold. I have no doubt from all I can learn, that this is the most extensive and generally rich of the whole mining region."

A DAY AT THE AGENCY

We are passing a day under the hospitable roof of Charles Hutchins the Indian Agent of the Nez Perces. As the Nez Perces Indians and the Reservation here are often discussed I send you a line or so about them.

LOCATION OF THE AGENCY AND EXTENT OF THE RESERVATION.

The Agency is established in a delightful little valley where the Lapwai flows into the Clearwater, with about 80 acres of rich soil nestling in the arms of the fine bold hills of these streams. About 20 acres of this land has a fine crop of wheat now ripe, and about 4 acres of peas, tomatoes, onions, and all varieties of vegetables—the finest we have seen in our rambles. There is a blacksmith shop, a grist mill and saw mill and some other buildings upon the grounds. The Reservation is about 100 miles square, and in general terms, is bounded by the Blue mountains on the West, Bitter Root on the East, Palouse river on the North and Salmon mountains on the South. Lewiston and other trading points are on the Reservation. Some of the finest valleys and richest soil in the upper country are on the Reservation; many of the gold fields are also within its limits, and there are now perhaps ten thousand whites on these lands. So without extending these items further, you will see that this Reservation at this time constitutes a very important part of this Territory.

A HISTORIC SPOT

The Agency here is one of the historic spots of this Coast, being one of the earliest missionary posts. A log house stands here which was built by Spalding, a missionary, in 18[illegible]. Flowers bloom about the cabin, brought here by him, and also some apple trees of his planting, and one feels to take his hat off before the old cabin as the place where first the printing press erected its altar on this Coast. I saw several of the religious books printed here in 1842 for the Indians. How the press has advanced in power on this Coast since that day. Who heard its working as lazily it threw off a few rude prints for the savage? Over all the Coast, from now its sheets of light, and its voice, feeble then, but mighty to-day, is heard in the cabin of the pioneer where in the unbroken forest the smoke curls up to heaven, and the President and Cabinet sit in Council with their hands to their ears to catch its tones from this distant shore. And what changes too, have come over this Coast! The waters on whose bosom the canoe of the savage quietly glided are vexed now by the prows of the freighted steamer. The farm blossoms in the valley where the hut stood, and the axe is heard in the forest; villages have sprung up, and from every inlet and indenture along the Coast, the white sails of commerce spread their pinions to the breeze; and where stood only bleak sand hills a city with a hundred thousand beating hearts rises from the waters of the beautiful bay of the Golden Gate, with a crown on her brow gathered from the [illegible] of the streams and the bowels of the mountains. Young and ambitious, with one hand she is living, [illegible] on [illegible] track on which to [illegible] her treasures, and her [illegible] Continent in [illegible], the other across the sea [illegible] the commerce of the Orient.

NUMBER AND CHARACTER OF THE NEZ PERCES.

This tribe numbers about 2,500 and in all that makes the man are far superior to any tribe on the Coast. The men are fine specimens of the race, with tall and well knit frames and intelligent faces. The women are inferior, as is the case with all savage tribes, resulting perhaps from the life they lead—cooped up in smoky huts, performing the drudgery of life, and held by the men and made to feel themselves inferior, while in the bold roaming life of the men the body and mind find a higher development. However the garb that fiction gives the savage is quite different from the dress in which we see him, and the Indian of fact and of fancy, of romance and reality are two different characters. Lawyer, the Chief, lives here and has adopted the dress and habits of the whites. He is intelligent and a good talker, and speaks English well. He is provided with quarters and is paid under the treaty $500 annuity. He is reckoned a great reasoner, and when he gives an opinion sends conviction with it, and his opinions are held in high esteem by the tribe—even his rivals bowing to thought and paying homage to the royal mind.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, and at Charles Barrett's, Front street.

DROWNED.—It is our painful task to record the sad intelligence that a young and promising youth of our city, William Weatherford, second son of Dr W. [illegible]rd, druggist, was accidentally drowned in the Willamette river yesterday evening, about 5 o'clock. It seems that a party of five young gentlemen had been across the river fixing up grounds for a pic nic party, and were on their way back, when about opposite the residence of Mr. James Stevens, and near the middle of the river, the dashing waves suddenly filled the frail skiff in which they were seated, and they all sank down under the water. Four of them rose to the surface, two holding on to the boat and two struck out to swim towards a sail boat which fortunately was near by, and which immediately came to their assistance and rescued the four from their perilous situation, but the fifth, William Weatherford, was not seen by any of the party after the boat sank. He must have sank immediately. Parties were out with grappling irons until a late hour last night, trying to find the body, but without success. Search will be resumed at an early hour this morning with faint hopes of finding him. We sincerely regret the loss of this young man, as he has long been favorably known in our city, and highly esteemed by all who know him, whilst his parents, relatives and friends will sadly miss his familiar presence and deeply mourn the loss of one who cannot soon be forgotten.—William Weatherford was about 17 years old, a promising youth of excellent manners and a great favorite with his comrades. Verily, in the midst of life we are in death.

"DOG" ON THE DOGS."—Our friend of the Advertiser is heavy on "dog items." He has been so much accustomed to publishing "dogmas," recently, that he is becoming quite "dog-matical," hence, in every issue there is an item about a "dog-on," dog gerel dog-fight, which is fast giving him a notoriety equal to "Dog berry."

"PLAYED OUT."—"My paper," round the corner, announces the fact that Mr. J. P. Denison has recently cleaned out the upper story of the "Fashion Saloon," and is refitting it for a first class Melodeon room in which the gentlemen of the Times office are to give nightly entertainments in minstrelsy, burlesque opera and comedy representations. The Times says "the hall will ready for us within week or ten days." From this we presume they intend to get up a theatrical company that will be sure to give their printing to that establishment, and which, doubtless "they" can afford to do cheaper than any other printing office in the city." However, we hope they will "chalk the hats" of all the printer-boys, and we shall take especial pains to give them a "good puff."

P. S.—Since the above was in type, we have been informed by Mr. Denison, that the printer made a mistake in the announcement of the Times,—the words should have read—"The Hall will be really for use," &c. As a certain notable gentleman of our city would say, it was a "lapsus linguæ."

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—To-day's Eastern advices quote gold at 14@15, with sudden fluctuations.

A Louisville dispatch of the 23d, says tobacco, bright Virginia [illegible], sells at 60@75 cts. The stock will be exhausted before November.

In Beauregards proclamations we recognize his hardest blows.—Louisville Journal.

The attention of the community is respectfully solicited to the New Goods arrived by the last steamer, embracing a full line of Ladies' Silk Mantillas, French Bonnets, Florals, new style Hats, Challis, Poplins and Debeges, together with a full assortment of Gents New Style thin Cassimere suits, Fancy Sacks, Broadway styles of Business Suits, and the very latest fashion of Parisian and New York Fancy Summer Panama Braid and Light Cassimere Hats. All the articles are now ready for sale and can be seen at Harkers' New Building on First street, in the rear of Commercial Wharf.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they enjoy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. [illegible] is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a diploma, and the honorary addendum degree. Selecting this wide field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian [illegible] army, for more than ten years, Dr. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the lean [illegible] in this branch of his profession throughout the United States and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's office is at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this [illegible]. Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence should enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get [illegible] to their [illegible]. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco, Cal. June26dawly

WE WILL HAVE A COTTAGE

We will have a cottage, Darling, a pretty lowly cot
Half hidden by the creeping vines, in just the sweetest spot—
A home for two united hearts a home for love and rest
Where undisturbed we'll [illegible] love and [illegible] supremely blest.

No unkind words we'll utter th[illegible] use a pettish tone
But with each other we shall hav a bright world of our own,
And loving words and gentle tones shall [illegible] reigning there,
And we will not forget our God, but lend [illegible] night a prayer

I know I shall be happy, L[illegible] though trials we shall find,
But all our cares will only [illegible] our hearts [illegible] firm to bind,
And while we've each a loving heart to trust [illegible]
The darkest picture we shall find will have a sunny sid

And in our pretty cottage home, we'll never care for wealth
But only ask for loving hearts, contentment and for health
And these, no more we [illegible] shall find beneath a costly dome,
Than in our loving blooming bower, our humble cottage home.

"Only a Screw Loose, Madam."

On a bright day in July, while standing in front of the pilot-house, on the deck of a staunch built screw propeller, enjoying the beauties of the lake on which we were sailing, all at once the boat suddenly stopped A rushing up from the cabin followed, with inquiries, "What is the matter?" "Is the boat going to blow up?" "Are we sinking?" &c

At that moment the Captain stepped upon deck. Feeling no alarm, I remained standing on the spot where I was when the boat stopped, and to satisfy a woman's curiosity, inquired of the Captain, "Is there trouble with the engine, sir?"

"Only a screw loose, Madam," he replied — All ladies within hearing were immediately restored to their equanimity, and we were soon under way, and mirth and chat resumed their wonted sway

But that short sentence, "Only a screw loose, Madam," spoken so calmly by the Captain, rang in my ears long after leaving the boat, and I began to moralize—"Only a screw loose!" But how easily it may be tightened, as in this case it was; but all loose screws do not belong to steam engines.

"What work we are having in our school," says Mr. Smith; "no order, no obedience, no lessons our money thrown away!" "Only a screw loose;" but some of the parents are not willing it should be tightened, so they keep a screw driver and turn out the screw as often as the teacher turns it in. Of course there will be a great deal of friction and rattle to the machine, and the wonder will be if it does not stop, then all the gossip in the district will rush in to find out what is the matter, and curse the teacher and call him a fool for not making the machine run smoothly, when there was "only a screw loose"

"Dear me!" says Mrs Jones, "I am almost discouraged about our church, we are all running down!"

"What is the matter? Haven't you got a good preacher?"

"O yes, nobody finds fault with him—I think he is a great preacher, but I don't know what the trouble is; there is something wrong somewhere."

"Only a screw loose," Mrs. Jones Let me speak a few plain words to you, seeing we are members of the same church Here is Squire Tweezers—brother Tweezers, I suppose I should say—he over-reaches his neighbors in every bargain he makes with them; takes all the legal advantages on notes, bonds, mortgages, &c, makes every poor man's necessity his opportunity, in short, he is doing a Wall street brokerage under the mantle of religion Mrs Jones, do you expect a church can prosper with such a knave in its communions?"

"To be sure, Squire Tweezers never transcends the limits of the law; he is too cunning for that He only takes legal interest, but says to the poor man—here, I will lend you one hundred dollars, but you must give me ten dollars for the use thereof, for six months, in addition to the legal [illegible]. I know some business men sanction such extortion, such grinding of the face of the poor; but mark my words, God will not bless a church which has such a loose screw in it

Squire Tweezers pays largely to support preaching; the communicants are completely under the key of his safe, and they dare not tighten the screw and leave the result to God, so the world laughs at the experiment, with the machine which is trying to carry saints and hypocrites to Heaven [Let both grow together til' the harvest.—JESUS]

"I wonder what ails Mr Easyman?" says sister Brown, he has just met with another heavy loss; he is so honest and so good that it does seem a pity that he cannot get along better Everybody cheats him

He doesn't tighten the screw, Mrs Brown Brother Easyman trusts everybody, thinks every [illegible] is honest; in short, he is a personification of that charity which thinketh no evil—everybody saw how it would be when Squire Tweezers got him into his clutches, but brother Easyman put implicit confidence in him, because he was a leading man in the church, and as soon as his note was due Tweezers foreclosed his mortgage and cheated him out of his farm

I was speaking with brother Easyman the other day, and he said he guessed he could go to Heaven as easily without his farm as Tweezers could with it Old Uncle Abel drew a long sigh and said—"If Squire Tweezers goes to Heaven I don't want to go"

"What a dreadful warning, child, Joseph Dodge is; he makes more noise evenings and does more mischief in the street, than any other boy in the village If he was my child I would oil him with birch" said Aunt Patty Lisk, a spinster of forty years

Tighten the screw, first tighten the screw, Aunt Patty

A nabob, in a very severe fit of the gout, told his physician that he suffered the pains of the damned The Doctor coolly answered,—"What, already?"

BURSTING OF AN ICEBERG.—A few years ago, a French man-of-war was lying at anchor in Temple Bay the young officers readily [illegible] amusing themselves with an iceberg, a mile and more [illegible] in the straits. They made sumptuous preparations for a [illegible] up on the very top [illegible] the mysteries of which they were curious to see All morning [illegible] the brawny and simple fishermen to the cars of the smartly dressed gentlemen who had [illegible] in the world were quite idle It was a bright summer morning, and the jolly boat, with a showy flag, went off to the berg. By twelve o'clock the colors were flying from the ice turrets and the wild midshipmen were shouting from its walls For two hours or so they hacked and clambered upon the crystal palace frolicked and feasted drank wine to the king and ladies, laughed at the thought of peril where all was fixed and solid As if in amazement at such rashness, the grim Alp of the sea made neither sound nor motion A profound stillness watched on his shining pinnacles, and darkened in the blue shadows of his caves. When like thoughtless children, they had played themselves weary, the old alabaster of Greenland mercifully suffered them to gather up their toys and go down to their cockle boat and flee away As if the time and his distance were measured he waited until they could see it and live, when, as if his heart had been a volcanic fire he burst with awful thunders and filled the surrounding waters with his ruins A more astonished little party seldom comes home to tell the story of their panic.—It was then first and their last day of amusement with an iceberg.

AN OLD PRISONER.—The work of cleaning the Queen's Bench Prison in London, is attended with difficulty as some of the prisoners refuse to be made bankrupt for the sake of regaining their liberty One of them, Wm Miller has been in the prison since 1814 a period of 48 years He refuses to go out, any way, and when he was finally forced to leave, begged permission to stay a little longer—When the allotted time was up he still lingered and shook hands with the officials over and again He went out to see for the first time a street gas lamp, an omnibus, a telegraph a steamboat, and a railway More than that he went out to see that the whole world to him was a stranger, and all its people strangers—How many of all the friends he knew half a century ago can Wm Miller find in 1862?

The following is an ingenious riddle, which may furnish an evening's work for some of our young friends who are good at ciphering

Three sisters go to market with eggs The first has fifty eggs the second has thirty and the third has ten Each asks the same price for her eggs, sells them and returns home, each having the same amount of money How did they sell their eggs and what amount of money did they receive?

AMERICAN TRAIT.—A French paper says On the 4th of July (inaugurated by Lafayette) there exists a curious custom in America As the clock strikes 12, every man, and boy, and as many women as can, set to work to whistle Yankee Doodle, and which continues for precisely ten minutes It may be fairly computed there are 30,000,000 of people sibillating simultaneously The effect is very curious

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation not only as an act of scientific skill but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and from [illegible] was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it soon became [illegible] as to defy the skill of any physician. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services; regardless [illegible] at once undertook my case and with [illegible] to restore perfect health [illegible] for the boon which I enjoy at present [illegible] of my indebtedness, I consider it [illegible] afflicted to make the case public, in order that [illegible] need of medical advice may find a physician [illegible] could be placed
